

Every Sunday at 4:30 Guys and Girls Christian Living Classes

Point 1: We can _____ the rules in the Bible; we can _____ the letter of the law; we can _____ every scripture and still not get it right. Being a follower of Christ is about our passionate pursuit of _____. When we learn to truly follow Jesus, we find that obedience to God comes from the _____.

Point 2: As a self-check, evaluate yourself. If your "faith" has always been more about your _____ than your _____; what's expected, than what is right; what's convenient over what's necessary, or what's normal over what challenges your relationship with _____, you may be a _____.

Point 3: If you are more focused on the outside than the inside, you are a _____, not a _____; a pretender, not _____; a hypocrite, not a _____. You are missing the point of grace.

Point 4: When _____ become more important than _____ and laws take precedent over relationships, it is a good sign that we have become fans who are aiming at the _____ target. While obedience is necessary, it is a _____ condition, not a _____ mandate. Pursuing Him and His righteousness is the focus; not marking a _____.

Chandler's Back Porch

"Like happiness, love is best defined by telling what it does. But, the very best way to describe love is to show it. God did this. Since He knows everything and since He IS love we are not surprised to learn that He not only loved the world, but that He sent His Son to die for the sins of the world.

Now, because He actively loved those who hated Him and those who did not deserve love He showed that Divine love does not have to have love in return, but can lead the way by loving the unlovable. This is beyond friendship, beyond sentiment, and beyond worth, but solely on God's nature He loves.

Most of us can love that which is lovely or affectionate. "But God shows His love for us in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Therefore, since God loved the unworthy, Christians are to do the same. I mean, God shows His love by doing good to the just and the unjust and therefore, we are to do this as well. Yet this is not man's love. But it is based on the fact that God loved us first. And, so, we love as God loves. Christians are rooted in love. We are to continue to grow in love. We are to love truth and speak the truth in love. Thus, when one is baptized and rises in a new life, he puts on a new nature created in God's likeness. He can be tenderhearted, forgiving and kind and he is been taught by God to love.

Now most assuredly, the individual that loves God will keep his commandments. The greatest of these commands is to love and anyone who loves God will love God's children and no one who hates God's children really loves God. So what is love? Love is being like God and doing that which God does because God is love. So, are you like God?"

Was that not beautiful? I really enjoyed this article. I can honestly say it opened my eyes this week. I teach our youth that we ourselves are supposed to be and can be like Christ. We are to go and love people so that they may see God in us. If we can follow what our Bible teaches and what this article is telling us. I believe that it will allow us to start bible studies, evangelize, and bring people to church. So that they may learn the true meaning of God's love by being saved!

Chandler Walker
