Point 1: For many of us, the Holy Spirit is something of mystery that makes us very _____ to talk about; especially in terms of being "filled with the _____."

Point 2: The Holy Spirit is a distinct part of _____, one of the three personalities of God and the one that we have literally with us today. To ignore His _____ is to ignore His _____.

- Point 3: The _____ enables us to:
- a. to have "new life" (Titus 3:5)
  - b. to _____ (Acts 9:31)
  - c. to experience the "Joy of the Lord" even in times of trouble (Acts 13:52)
  - d. to _____ (Romans 5:5-6)
  - e. know the grace of Christ and the Love of God as we have _____ with Him (2 Cor. 13:14).
  - f. to have spiritual blessings (Eph. 1:3)
  - g. guard the truth (2 Timothy 1:14)
  - h. acknowledge Jesus is Lord (1 Cor. 12:3)
  - i. enter the _____ of God (John 3:5)
  - j. more

Point 4: Holy Spirit marks us, recognizes us and seals us for the day of _____.

Point 5: It is through the _____ Holy Spirit that we have a relationship with _____ the father. We can only receive this through _____ the Son. And together, they put us into Christ as a new creation belonging to _____. (Titus 3:6-7)

Do You Not Understand?

Understand: Thou Shalt Get a Clue

A comedian once said that all people are clueless once in a while, but some make a career out of it. To illustrate his point, he told the story of three fellows who went off a bridge in a pick-up truck. The one that was driving rolled down the window and swam out, but the two sitting in the back drowned because they couldn't get the tailgate down.

While such a story may amuse us, being spiritually "clueless" is not a laughing matter. It's one thing to be naïve about something; it's an entirely different matter to be intentionally ignorant or unwilling to learn or unwilling to accept the truth. The Pharisees were like this; so much so that Jesus called them "fools and blind" (Matt. 23:17, 19; Jn. 9:39-41). Yet, one does not have to be like the Pharisees to be spiritually clueless. One can almost hear the frustration in Jesus' voice after He would give careful instruction to His disciples, only to realize that they didn't have a clue what He was saying. He would say things like, "Are you still without understanding? Do you not understand...?" (Matt. 15:16-17) "How is it you do not understand...?" (16:11) Jesus was not belittling them; He was trying to get them to open their eyes and understand what the will of the Lord is. And that's just what He's still trying to do through His word today (Matt. 7:21-27; 13:14-15; Jas. 1:21).

Friends, we are able to "read and understand" (2 Cor. 1:13). We are able to understand the truth (2 Tim. 3:15-16), therefore, there is no excuse for spiritual blindness. "Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is" (Eph. 5:17).

I did not write this. This article was too good to pass up. It gave me a chuckle at first, then really drove the point home. After working with youth as a leader for over 5 years, I would have to say one of the biggest things that youth claim to hold them back is not being smart enough to understand Christ's teachings. They develop this thought that Jesus was just too awesome (one kid did tell me this) to understand. Now, in a way, that's true, but even many adults believe this as well. "I don't study because I can't understand the teachings of such and incredible all-knowing God." That's the wrong kind of thinking. Because God designed the Word to be the exact opposite. The Word is here so we do understand and the relationship between you and the Father can be real! Believing it is too much to fathom is the kind of thinking that will get you stuck in the bed of the truck drowning because you could not get the tail gate down.
