Names of God - Redeemer

Point 1: In addition to all of the other names and characteristics of God, the one that gives us _____ is that we serve Go'el or _____.

Point 2: According to dictionary.com, redeem is an action verb that means:

- 1.to buy or pay off; clear by _____: to redeem a mortgage.
- 2.to _____ back, as after a tax sale or a mortgage foreclosure.
- 3.to _____ (something pledged or mortgaged) by payment or other satisfaction to redeem a pawned watch.
- 4.to _____ (bonds, trading stamps, etc.) for money or goods.
- 5.to _____ (paper money) into specie.

Point 3: The idea is that our God took action to pay off the debt that we owe and to buy us back, recovering us from the _____ to Hell that we deserve because of our actions and our choices. In order to do this, Go'el, our Redeemer God _____ His Son Jesus Christ and the purity He possessed for us in all of our _____.

Point 4: The _____ was the life of Jesus Christ hung on a cross so that we could receive the forgiveness of sins. He took our _____ and it was not pretty.

Preacher's Porch

I enjoy reading. I enjoy reading almost anything; but my favorites are Luis L'amour and the daily comics. Much to my chagrin, Mr. L'amour passed away several years ago. But much to my delight, the daily comics keep on coming and I can even peruse them on my computer on a daily basis. I don't, but I can.

During one recent day, it came to my attention that many, many of the comics; probably a majority of the comics are based on the personification of animals rather than simply using humans. Think about it for a moment. Snoopy (whom I quoted in a different article recently), Garfield, Pearls Before Swine, Sherman's Lagoon, Little Lost Dog, Red and Rover, Get Fuzzy, Mother Goose, Bugs Bunny, Mickey Mouse and many, many more are all based on the personification of animals. WHY?

This is just speculation on my part but it seems that when we use animals or other emblems, we can often laugh at things that would otherwise hit too close to home for comfort or that might even offend us (if we thought they were aimed at us.) For example, look at the April 28, 2014 Pearls Before Swine:

If we thought that it were aimed at us, well, we wouldn't find it nearly as amusing. By using animals, the author can make a clear and valid point that we need to hear and we laugh.

KEEP THEM IN YOUR PRAYERS

Sue Callaway is in HealthSouth room 124B.

Continue to Remember: Richard Barks, Melissa James, Ken Rabon, Mary Taylor, Jerry Greene, Kirby Whitley, David & Jennie Waggoner, Bill Wood, Brenda Estridge, Brownie Pickens, Wan & Sue Callaway, Khristie Beaird, Nikki Freeze, Alyene Williams, Alastair & Linda Ferrie, Coach Darren Mayes, Karla Brinkley, April Taylor, Norma Stone-Davis, & the Finto Family (Sonshine House)

Foster's Home for Children has begun their 2014 "Gleaning for Children" Coin Can Campaign. If you would like to help, please pick up a can from the foyer table and place your leftover change in it each day. There are still quite a few cans still available.

Our 5th Sunday Special Contribution for the new church van collected $1,928 of the remaining $7,000 owed. If you were unable to give, you can still donate towards the van. Just drop your check off in the office, or put it in the plate. Please make sure that you put "Church Van" in the memo section so that we know to apply it towards the balance of the van.

There will be a Fish Fry Benefit for Richard Barks, husband of new member, Jackie Barks, at the First Christian Church on July 19th from 4:00-6:30. As you may have noticed, Richard has been on our prayer list for some time and has been undergoing cancer treatments.

So how do you take criticism and critiquing? With a nod that you need to improve? Or with offense? Can you listen to a sermon without getting mad? Can you read your Bible without being convicted? Can you come to Christ without changing because He demands it? When you examine your life, do you see clearly? Or is it clouded by defensiveness? Open us and let Christ change your life. Really.

In Him, Todd
