Closing Prayer

The Tomb is Empty:

I feel like it is safe to say that you, at some point or another, are going to doubt your faith. Doubting can make your faith deeper than ever before if you follow God and let Him show you truth. Doubting can be a poison to your faith. It can destroy you- if you believe the lies you are being fed. Going straight off emotion and ignoring truth. But if you follow God, the truth will always be shown to you.

The following short story is true. Joss Ross is a Minister in Memphis, TN. His sister, in Decatur, TX, had strep throat; a very and almost always curable illness. Even when strep throat is considered deadly, it can still be cured most of the time. But there is a 1 in a million chance it will be fatal (I do not know if that is the exact statistic but you get the point). Joss's sister died in 18 days from first contact with her illness. When his parents were leaving the hospital to try and figure out what the new normal would look like, his mother asked his father right before walking through the glass doors to the parking lot, "What do we believe?" Joss's father pondered a couple of minutes and replied "The tomb is empty." This fact is, what gives us, as Christians, in the midst of confusion, chaos, death, and grief to live, is hope. The tomb is empty. Because the tomb is empty, this gives us our passion and energy to live like Christ intended.

In His Service,
Chandler Walker

Sue Callaway is in HealthSouth room 124B.
Theo Allen got a "cancer free" check up this week!

Foster's Home for Children has begun their 2014 "Gleaning for Children" Coin Can Campaign. If you would like to help, please pick up a can from the foyer table and place your leftover change in it each day. There are still quite a few cans still available.

Our 5th Sunday Special Contribution for the new church van collected $1,928 of the remaining $7,000 owed. If you were unable to give, you can still donate towards the van. Just drop your check off in the office, or put it in the plate. Please make sure that you put "Church Van" in the memo section so that we know to apply it towards the balance of the van.

There will be a Fish Fry Benefit for Richard Barks, husband of new member, Jackie Barks, at the First Christian Church on July 19th from 4:00-6:30. As you may have noticed, Richard has been on our prayer list for some time and has been undergoing cancer treatments.

Wednesday, July 30th, there will not be any Bible classes, only a short devotional in the auditorium at 6:30. Most of our kids and many of our teachers will be at QMCC during that week.

Our deepest sympathies go out to the family of former member, Glen Long, who suffered an abdominal aneurism and passed away. His funeral is Saturday at 10:00 at the Nocona Church of Christ.

Ethan Williams has begun his Trail to Eagle Scout. As his Eagle Scout Project, he has chosen to refresh and relocate the metal sign that has been located on Burnett Street. This sign will get new lettering, paint and be relocated on the corner of N 148 and W Gilbert. This project will require around $500 and we have had $295 donated so far. If you would like to help pay some of the costs of this project, please let Brad or Selinda know.

We now have an address for Chris Davis, our missionary in Northern Ireland.
