I'm Looking Forward to It

Robert had a good job, though it was very demanding. As a younger man he didn't mind the long hours away from home, but he was now nearing retirement and the stress of the job was weighing heavier with each passing day. With only a few months left to work, he said to his wife, "I've spent most of my life making a lot of money, and what has it got me? Oh, I've enjoyed it; and I've even made a big name for myself. But to be honest, honey, I'd rather have been a poor man with you than a rich man without you. So I'm really looking forward to spending the rest of my life by your side."

Paul (who was a man of high standing) said, "13 No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it, but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, 14 I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us." (Phil. 3:13-14). Friends, all the greatness we may achieve in this life (the wealth, the accomplishments, the accolades) cannot begin to compare to the glory of an eternity with our Lord (Matt. 6:19-21). Don't focus too much on the toys of life or you'll miss out on the joys of heaven. Heaven is my goal and I'm looking FORWARD to it. How about you?

In His Service,
Chandler Walker

THANK YOU!

To Our Wonderful Christian Family, One of the greatest gifts God has blessed us with is our Christian family. We are grateful for all you have done for us during this difficult time. For those who sat with Dad while Mom was in the hospital, for those who visited Mom in the hospital and at home, those who brought food, the phone calls, shoulders cried on and mostly for your prayers. Words could never express how much you all mean to us for the comfort found in your love.

We love you,
David & Jennie Waggoner and Jan & Paul Landis
