What have you been forgiven?

Point 1: All of us who have come to Christ and been washed in His blood should remember the joy of our initial realization that we are _____. For some reason, we tend to let that joy fade and even become skeptical or less than _____ of those that we think are "overzealous."

Point 2: Often we fail to recognize the _____ of a broken and contrite heart and to put aside as false religion the emotional reaction to being made clean.

Point 3: While we cannot base our faith on our emotional response, and it is dangerous to validate our " _____ " by our emotional reaction, we cannot help but be moved emotionally if we truly understand the sacrifice involved in our redemption and the eternal implications of our salvation.

Point 4: The true test or the genuineness of our response is not, however our _____. It is our follow through on the commitment that we have made to be transformed into the likeness of Christ.

This Is What It's All About

I saw a bumper sticker once that said, "This Is What It's All About." It didn't indicate what "IT" was. Often, when people put such emphasis on a word like that, they have a generic application in mind. It's sort of like when people say, "They say..... you shouldn't do this or that." Who is "THEY"? I'm not sure anyone really knows. It's just a way of making a simple point.

Yet sometimes "IT" signifies something very important to a person. For example, to some, "IT" is the meaning of life; and that is something worthy of our consideration. Think about it: "IT'S" all about you. That's right, friends, you are special to God. He desires you. Do you marvel at this? If so, you're not alone. David asked God, "What is man that You are mindful of him...?" (Ps. 8:4). When one considers the vastness of the universe and all the wonders of it, suddenly man seems so insignificant – but not so to God. For you see, "IT'S" all about GOD'S love for you (Rom. 5:6-8). "IT'S" all about GOD'S plan to save you (Jer. 31:31-34). "IT'S" all about a home with GOD in heaven (2 Pet. 3:13). "IT'S" all about your obedience to GOD so that the things He desires for you may be realized (Eccl. 12:13). So if you want to know what the meaning of life really is, friends, "That's What "IT'S" All About."

In His Service,
Chandler Walker
