Point 1: When we stand before God, we come before the Almighty; the Creator and _____ of the _____; yet what we often come before him with are the _____ things of life.

Point 2: When we kneel before God, we need to understand that as our Father, he wants to give us _____. The question remains, do we have the _____ to ask, in _____, for those good gifts.

Point 3: In verses 33-36, the term here that is used for good light is the term implying _____ while the term used for darkness indicates _____. When we choose to be a light to the world then, in part we are sharing the Good news of what God has done for us.

Point 4: What God has done for us is provide for our needs, allow for our requests, _____ us more than we deserve, _____ us as His own, and paid the ransom price for our _____. In light of His generosity, how can we ever be anything except _____.

I am Tempted by God

As you were browsing through the bulletin, did the title of this article jump out at you? I was hoping it would. Some of you may have been thinking, "Wait a minute! That's not right. God doesn't do that" – and you know, you'd be right. Actually, this title comes from something that James said in James 1:13. He said, "Let no one say when he is tempted, 'I am tempted by God'; for God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He Himself tempt anyone."

Every now and then, when something bad happens, God gets the blame. Some think that God actually causes evil to happen, while others think that God could have (at the very least) prevented it from happening. Both of these attitudes are often apparent when it comes to temptation. Some believe that when they fall into temptation and do some wrong that God either caused it, or (at the very least) didn't prevent it. James points out that it's not God's fault so don't be blaming Him. He said, "But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own desires and enticed. Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, brings forth death" (vv. 14-15).

You see, friends, spiritual death is the result of sin. We sin when we give in to temptation; and we are tempted when we allow our desires to get out of hand. James says, "Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him" (v. 12)

Today is our 5th Sunday Special Contribution. The elders have decided to dedicate these funds to Sandy Webb at SIBI and local technology needs of our church. Please specify on your check which area you would like your contribution to be counted towards.

Kate Talley, the elementary PE teacher's baby who had surgery last week is still at Cook's in Ft Worth. Please keep her in your prayers, as well as her family.

Gathy Talley has slipped a disk in her back and is in a lot of pain.

In an effort to make sure that everyone keeps updated on the missionaries that we support, we will be forwarding their newsletters & emails to our members as well as making copies and placing them on our "Missions" board. If you have not been getting the bulletin via email, please make sure that the office has your email address so that you can be added to this list.

The New Mexico Christian Children's Home in Portales will be here on April 6th to pick up donated items. Although they will accept anything that is donated, they have specifically requested Kleenex and Napkins this quarter.

Leadership Training for Christ is right around the corner on April 3rd & 4th. Most of our kids have been working hard to learn everything they can about the book of Luke. This is a great ministry for our youth, but it is not free. With registration, room and food, each kid cost is $80 for two days. We are in need of a few more sponsors to help defray some of the costs for the church. If you can help in any amount, please let Chandler or Brad know.
