

UPCOMING EVENTS
09/27 No Small Groups-Meet at the building at 6.

Point 1: There are many _____ and _____ within the church. Some of these jobs that are created are based on _____ and cannot be compromised by those claiming to follow God's plan. Others are based on _____, social convention, age and perceived abilities. These allow us much more freedom.

Point 2: Within the _____ worship, there are various "jobs" to be performed. Each of these is pictured within _____ in a specific way.

Point 3: Outside the "formal" corporate worship of the body, there are many other opportunities to _____. These are sometimes specific but most often are much more open for _____.

Point 4: One of the biggest things we can do is to find our place to _____. While we cannot and should not try to do "_____", we cannot do "_____" and fool ourselves into thinking it is acceptable to _____. "Church" is not a _____.

Imagine for a moment that you got into a car accident. You were fine, but your car was totaled. What if you went to the mechanic and said, "I know my car needs to be fixed, but please don't replace any of the body parts. I'm used to the old ones; I want to keep them the way they are."

It seems like a ridiculous illustration, but many people live their spiritual lives just like that. When we give our lives to Christ, we become new creations and we are supposed to trade in our old body parts for new ones.

This can be painful because we are used to our old body parts. But we need new ones to match our new hearts. Our legs have taken us places we no longer want to go. Our eyes have looked at things we no longer want to see. Our brains have been filled with thoughts we no longer want to think.

Until we renew our entire beings, living the Christian life will be like trying to drive a new car with old body parts.

And that's not a smart way to drive. Or live.
